Outdoor Learning offer from the Dartmoor Centres

We at the Dartmoor Centres fully understand how challenging school life is at present, the desire for pupils to 'catch up' on lost learning time and to improve children's mental health. Outdoor Learning has multiple benefits, which are even more valuable at this time;

- Develops peer and teacher relationships
- Develops confidence as learners
- Motivates children to learn through real life experiences
- Develops healthy lifestyles
- Teaches children to enjoy the outdoors with respect for the environment
- And much more

At the Dartmoor centres we have years of experience of providing school residentials and whilst this is not currently possible due to government restrictions on residential trips, we are pleased to be able to offer a range of exciting outdoor education days support to schools, provided by our team of highly skilled Outdoor Learning Tutors. The Dartmoor Centres employ some of the most experienced outdoor professionals in the industry and we can work with school staff to create the perfect fun and educational day for your pupils. We have created some options but we can be flexible and design a programme that works for you.

Learning outside the classroom was most successful when it was an integral element of long-term curriculum planning and closely linked to classroom activities."

Ofsted; Learning Outside the Classroom, How far should we go?

"Young people who experience learning outside the classroom as a regular part of their school life benefit from increased self esteem, and become more engaged in their education both inside and outside the classroom walls."
